LOCAL BREVITIES.

The primary will soon be here.

The oat yield is said to be the best in a score of years.

The showers of the past week have been most acceptable.

The official statement of the Iron County Bank is printed this week.

The County Clerk's certificate of nominations filed is printed this week.

J. D. Vance has purchased the home of the late Thos. Beard in north Ironton.

The well drillers are now at work on Louis Schach's premises in north Ironton.

The date for the Baptist Assembly on Arcadia Heights this year is August 24-14th.

The indulgent reader will be charitable with the shortcomings of this week's paper. Fourth of July.

The grand lodge of the Mosaic Templars, a colored secret society, is in session at the Academy of Music this week.

Most of the local sports were deeply chagrined over the result of the big prize fight in Reno, July 4th. The black contingent is jubilant.

Col. C. L. Stone, general traffic manager of the passenger department of the Missouri Pacific system, and about twenty prominent newspaper men from St. Louis will visit the valley in a special car next Sunday.

Lost—On the streets of Ironton, last Saturday afternoon, an open-face gold watch, having a short black tape attached to it. The letter L is indistinctly marked on the back. Five dollars reward will be given for its return to this office.

A union meeting was held under Rev. Strother's tent in Ironton Sunday evening, between two and three hundred people being in attendance. Short talks were made by the various pastors, and the meeting proved quite interesting.

Mrs. Maude Jurich, who has been in poor health for a year or more, arrived in Ironton last Saturday evening and is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Edgar. We are pleased to state that Mrs. Jurich's health is much improved.

Mr. Eastman, a member of the choir of the First Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, and Mr. Strine of the Maple Avenue Methodist Church choir, were guests of Mr. York last week, and sang at the musicale in the Academy of Music Friday night.

The 4th in the valley was quiet enough. A rain which continued more or less all morning, interfered with the general observance of the day. In the afternoon quite a crowd assembled at the picnic in Arcadia, and that's about all there was out of the usual.

Conductor James V. Webb, one of the owners of Goulding Park, west of town, where it is said the colored folk want to locate the institution for incorrigible females, authorizes us to say that the property could not be bought for such a purpose for $100,000!

About two hundred people arrived in the valley on No. 25 Saturday evening. The train was about three hours late, not getting here until 9:30. If the railroad company wants to make the valley popular as a resort for St. Louis people it will have to improve on the train service.

When Thos. Johnson told us a month ago that he would have strawberries the 4th of July and we printed his statement in the paper a number of people laughed at the idea. To prove his assertion Mr. Johnson on Saturday and on July 4th presented us with a box of fine strawberries—ripe and delicious. But the season is almost over now, after a most unusually long one.

The Commercial Club is in session this afternoon hearing the proposition of Messrs. Slack and Bradstreet of New York to build an iron ore furnace in this city, and while at press time, 4 o'clock, no action has been taken, the proposition is regarded as good. It is a $200,000 enterprise. The enterprise now controls fifty-two hundred acres of fine iron land.—Poplar Bluff Republican.

Several cars of Texas stock were watered and fed here last week. After they had been shipped into St. Louis the railroad sent a man here to disinfect the stock pen so that no disease might be communicated to the native stock. It is said that the Texas animals are infested with a tick that is fatal to the Missouri stock. Some three gallons of carbolic acid were distributed about the pen.

Several displays of fireworks illuminated the night of the Glorious Fourth, among the most notable being those on the J. A. W. Lewis and Dr. Summa premises. At the former place several St. Louis summer residents pooled their patriotic issues. Far into the night the heavens were ablaze with blue and red lights, and the air filled with detonations, visible to the eye and patent to the ear for miles round about.

The following recently appeared in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, telegraphed from Jefferson City under date of June 23d: "Gov. Hadley to-day affixed his signature to the transferring of the five-acre farm to Mrs. Mathilda Rudolph of Chicago, who won the word contest conducted by the State Immigration Commission. This farm is in the Arcadia Valley and was donated to the Immigration Commission by a realty company."

A mail pouch hanging on the crane at Arcadia station for train No. 5 was stolen and rifled of its contents last Thursday night. The theft was not known until the next morning, when the mail pouch, cut open and empty, was found some distance from the station. Two white men and a negro—all strangers—were taken in charge by the officers Friday, suspected of being implicated in the robbery but soon established their innocence and were permitted to go on their way.

The following appeared in Monday's Republic, telegraphed from Bismarck under date of July 3d: "Mrs. Mary Wilson, of Elvins, Mo., accidentally swallowed a needle, almost two inches in length, four years ago and has never suffered in consequence of her strange experience. She had forgotten all about it until a few days ago, when a red spot appeared just below her left knee. Dr. J. L. Eaton made an x-ray examination to-day, found and removed the needle from this red spot."

In last week's Republican the editor, Mr. Elmer, had an editorial defending the county newspapers against the remarks made by Mr. O'Meara in his prohibition speech at the courthouse Saturday evening, June 18th. We commend Mr. Elmer in the stand he takes and will say for ourselves that the Monitor has not sold out to the brewers and don't intend to. But we will take their advertising at space rates. They pay for their advertising and this is more than we can say for the other side.—Salem Monitor.

J. J. Frank, formerly of this city, but more recently of St. Louis, has closed a deal whereby he buys out George Begley's undertaking establishment and art store. In fact he takes the entire business except the blacksmith shop and wagon factory. They are now in liquidation and unless something unforeseen comes up he will take possession of the business Thursday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Frank will return to this city to live. Mrs. Frank will visit at summer resorts for a few months before coming here.—Poplar Bluff Republican.

At the request of Rev. J. W. Alcorn of Annapolis we announce a basket dinner at the Sutton Schoolhouse, on Sunday, August 7th, that being the church's regular meeting day. Two services will be held—one at 11 o'clock a. m., and communion service at 5 p. m. Says Mr. Alcorn: "We will try to comply with the Scriptures as given in St. John 13th chapter, 13th and 14th verses. We do not want a picnic on that day, but heart-rendering service. It will be the Lord's table at 5 o'clock—not ours. A cordial invitation is extended to all."

Miss Fannie Freeland and M. B. Shaw, were married in Kansas City, Mo., July 6th, 1910. Miss Freeland is a native of Indiana but taught in Ironton and Middlebrook schools some years ago. She taught in Great Falls, Montana, schools last year and has spent the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Robinson, in Irondale, Mo. Mr. Shaw is a druggist of Stillwell, Okla., and ranks first among business associates. The happy couple will reside in Stillwell, Okla., where Mr. Shaw has already prepared a furnished bungalow. The marriage came as a surprise and we wish them many more happy and prosperous surprises as time passes.

Married—At the home of the bride in Ironton, Mo., Saturday evening, July 2d, 1910, Mrs. Milner J. Orrick and A. L. Willard of Lesterville, Mo. Rev. Fuller Swift officiating. The bride is a long-time resident of Ironton, and for a number of years has been successful and popular as landlady of the hotel which bears her name—that is to say, her name until last Saturday evening. Mr. Willard is bookkeeper for the White & Hummel M'fg Co. Although his Missouri residence does not cover more than two years, he has acquired an extended acquaintance, all of whom will join with the REGISTER in wishing him and his wife long life and unclouded happiness.

My friend and near neighbor, Wm. Trauernicht, Esq., is putting on airs these days. When he walks down street under the flare of the lamps at night, or in the glare of the sun at noonday, his shirt front, right under the necktie, razzles and dazzles the eye. You can't tell but that it's a locomotive astray, or an electric lighted automobile that is approaching.

A nearer sight, however, discloses the fact that the light-dispersing power is a numerously carated diamond pin—a present lately given him by his friend, G. W. Parker, of Bismarck. It is a fine gem, but to my notion it does not fit William as well as it might one of his near neighbors—modesty forbids my being more particular in designation. Joking aside, we all know the recipient is deserving of the best his friends can give him, and he is not lacking in due appreciation.

During the charivari of Mr. and Mrs. Willard last Saturday night Roy Reel was accidentally shot in the left hip. The ball came from a 32 calibre Colt's revolver in the hands of Wm. Schleuter, one of the cow-bell serenaders. He was firing his "gun" merely to add to the din, and was greatly dismayed at the result of his shooting. The wound inflicted is of course painful, but pronounced not serious by the surgeons of the Missouri Pacific Hospital at St. Louis, whither the patient was taken Sunday morning. By the aid of the x-ray the bullet was located and extracted Tuesday. There is in this incident a whole sermon against the promiscuous carrying of deadly weapons—at the very best a foolish and uncalled-for habit. The statute against it is severe, and it ought to be rigidly enforced. I am not asking for special action in the above instance, for I am satisfied the offender is fully punished by his remorse; but I would like to see the future made secure against similar occurrences.

Walter Lee Morris and Miss Irene Nixon were united in marriage at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian church by their pastor, Rev. C. E. Hickok. Miss Elsie Cayce played the wedding march. The bride was attended by Mrs. John E. McCormick as matron of honor and Miss Florence McCormick as bridesmaid. Martin Linn Clardy was best man and Dr. Frank Weber groomsmen. The ushers were Dr. E. L. Horton, Ellis Lawrence, Howard G. Washburn and John McCormick. The bride was attired in a traveling suit of blue and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor and bridesmaid wore white and carried bouquets of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by an audience of invited guests which completely filled the large auditorium of the church. The wedding occurred on the silver wedding anniversary of the parents of the bride. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Nixon and is a general favorite among the people of Farmington. The groom is the junior member of the firm of Morris Bros., and is a capable, enterprising young business man. He is certainly to be congratulated for he has won as his bride an accomplished and most excellent young woman. Mr. and Mrs. Morris left immediately after the ceremony for a trip of three weeks through the east and north. While away they will visit Old Point Comfort, Washington, New York, Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis. After their return home, they will reside with the bride's parents until their own new residence is completed. They were the recipients of a large number of very handsome presents.—Farmington News.

The county board of health met at Farmington Tuesday for the purpose of discussing plans for checking the smallpox epidemic at Flat River. It was decided to stop all picnics and celebrations scheduled to take place throughout the county on the fourth of July. A proclamation to that effect has been issued. The authorities at Flat River have been doing all in their power to check the spread of the disease. A rigid quarantine is being maintained. All church services, lodge meetings, ball games and other public gatherings have been forbidden by a proclamation issued by the mayor and board of aldermen. In only one case has this proclamation been ignored. Last Sunday the members of the Flat River Church of Christ met at their usual place of worship and proceeded to hold services. As soon as the authorities became aware of this, Mayor Rinke and Marshal Freeman visited the church, stopped the services and placed S. L. Willard, W. B. Dalton, Guy Lawson, Chas. Rehkop, M. Marler, and G. A. Johnson, who are among the leading members of the church of Christ, under arrest. They were arraigned before Police Judge Ramsey, who fined each one of them $1 and costs, amounting in all to $46.50. Their defense was that they had a perfect right to worship God whenever and wherever they pleased. They apparently lost sight of the fact that their action in ignoring the proclamation might bring misery and death to hundreds of people. A pest house has been established in tents near the Shaw Spring, a short distance from the old Central mill. Dallas McAllister and Gus O'Dell, are the only two persons that so far have become afflicted with the disease in Elvins. O'Dell is quarantined at his boardinghouse and McAllister was removed from his home to the pest house Wednesday evening.—Elvins Labor Herald.

Arcadian Musings.

The Glorious Fourth is past and many a poor man and boy who only last night imagined he was a Crumb-Murdock Land Co., owning an Arcadia Valley and an Ozark fence around it, is waking up this morning with a bewildered realization that he is only a buzzard-picked skeleton bleaching in the arid sun of an Arizona desert, with not a friend to even shoo the flies off. BUDWEISER.

Annapolis News.

Hot days and cool nights.

Quite a disturbance southwest of Annapolis in what we call "Indian Territory." The boys got some booze to have a good time on the 4th of July, but some of them could not wait and started the thing in full blast on the 3d and had quite a knock down. There will be bills, knucks, pistols and knives and all kinds of weapons up to rocks, but nothing but rocks used. No serious damage done except Fred Warren threw Thomas Dunn in the creek, head and ears. There was enough noise, screaming, howling and cursing, to make one think eight or ten people were being killed. A warrant has been applied for.

Benjamin Kitchell and family of Oklahoma will visit his father and family in Annapolis in about ten days. They are at present at Illinois, will go from there to Sprott, and then to Annapolis for a week.

Squire Kitchell, wife and children and quite a number of young people from here boarded No. 26 Monday to attend the picnic at Arcadia.

Walter Price and family of Louisiana are visiting his grandfather, John M. Delly of Cranepond. Walter has been away fourteen years. But they will come back to Annapolis.

There is going to be trouble if whiskey and beer shipments into this town are not curtailed.

Quite a crowd from here went to Des Arc and Poplar Bluff to spend the 4th.

BULLETIN.

Carver Creek.

As our neighborhood has not been represented for some time in the valuable pages of the REGISTER, I thought that I would send a few items that we might not be entirely forgotten.

Health in general is very good and everybody is very busy, especially those engaged in agricultural pursuits.

Rev. Wadlow filled his appointment at this place Sunday, June 26th and delivered a very interesting sermon.

The ice cream festival conducted at Glover Saturday night, June 25th, was a success. Everybody seemed to enjoy a fine time and contributed liberally to the benefit of the church by purchasing ice cream and other good things prepared for the occasion.

The wedding bells rang in our neighborhood Sunday, June 19th, and another of Carver Creek's young ladies pronounced the marriage vows. Miss Lena Dunn, of Carver Creek, and Mr. Miles Sutton, of Glover, were united in marriage at the home of the bride on the date above mentioned.

Both bride and groom have many friends who wish them happiness and success as they float down the stream of time together.

Miss Ruth Dunn, who has been visiting her grandmother at Williamsville, returned home recently.

Mrs. J. W. Bell, of Granite City, Ill., is visiting home folks at this writing.

Mrs. Martha Sherrill, of Upper Carver, has been seriously ill for some time but is reported better.
